

Want to be a MyCAA School?

The Military Spouse Career Advancement Accounts Program (known as MyCAA) has already helped thousands of eligible military spouses find and fund the education and training they need to pursue high demand, high potential portable careers. If you're an accredited, military-friendly school with robust, proven career oriented student services and programs of study, we want YOU to be part of MyCAA!

Go to the MyCAA School Resources page at <https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa/SchoolResources/SchoolResources.aspx>, and read the MyCAA School FAQs. If MyCAA sounds like a good fit, click the MyCAA School Eligibility Application on the same School Resources page to fill-out and submit your application.

Get started. It's your first step towards finding out if you're eligible to join the ranks of other top notch schools that are preparing our military spouses for rewarding portable careers.
